
March for Science Sydney

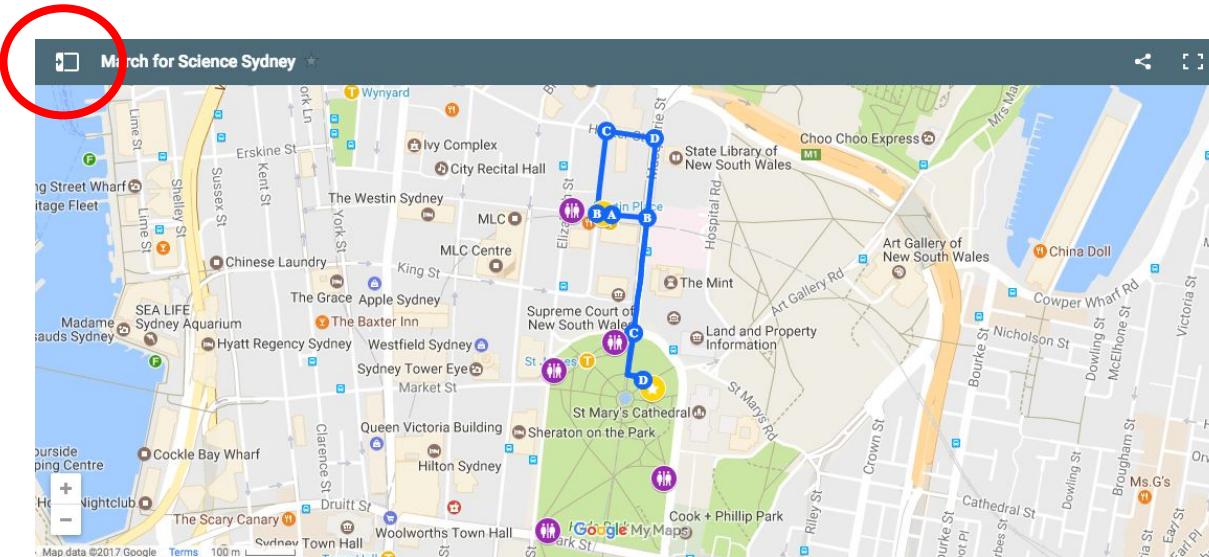

Route photos

11.03.2017

The route map can be found on the Sydney March web page at <https://marchforscienceaustralia.org/sydney/>.

The map shows public toilet locations and the two routes (one longer, one shorter).

Click the icon at the top right to open a panel that lets you display each route separately.

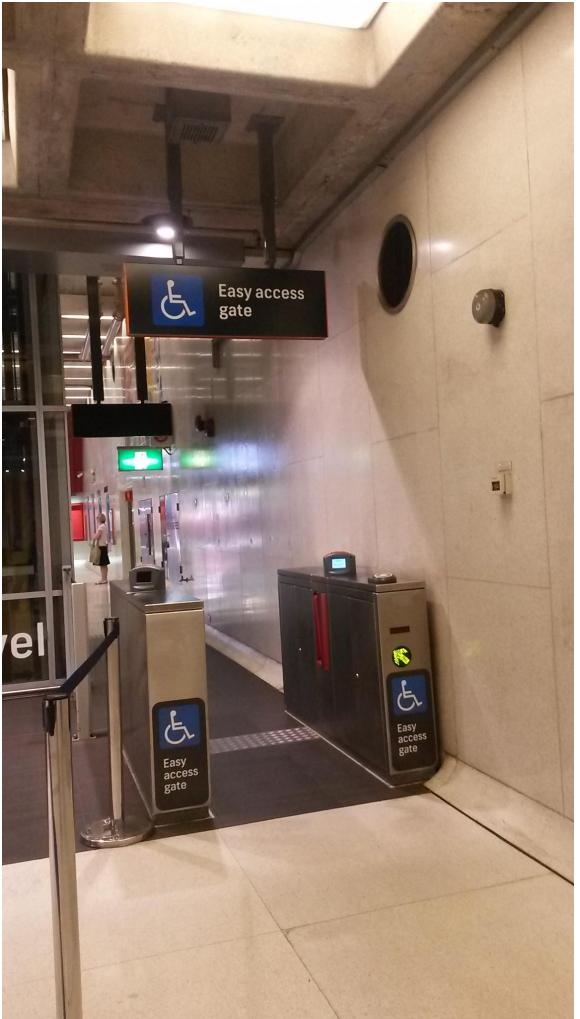

← Martin Place Station:
lift from platform to concourse

Opening hours of toilets
(including wheelchair-accessible) on concourse →

Martin Place Station concourse:
accessible gate as seen from both sides, and lift to street

Martin Place
Station exit (lift
at street level)

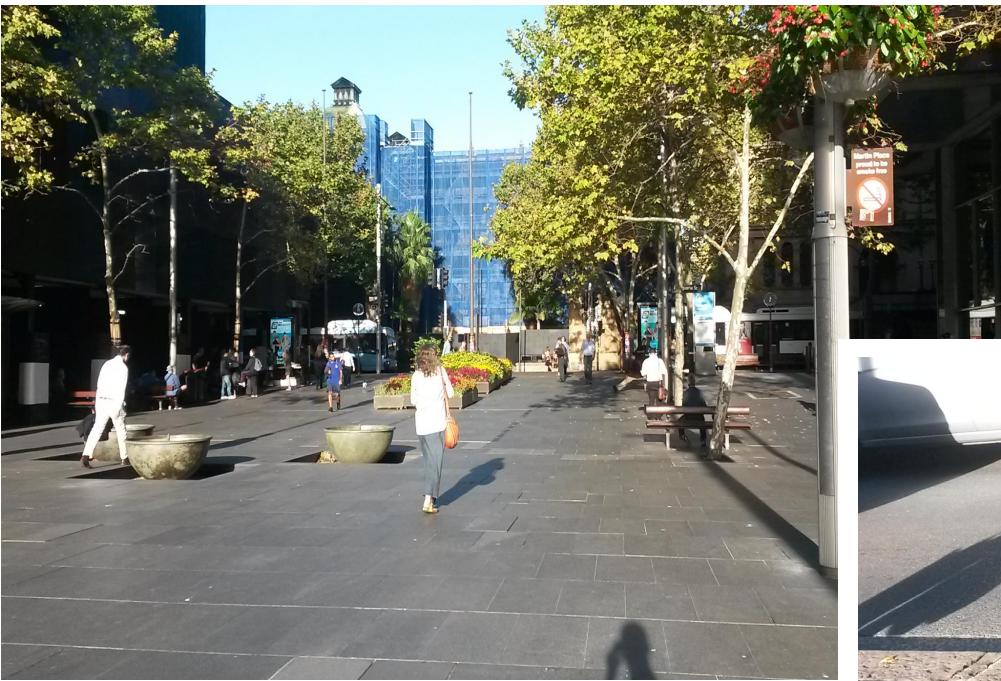

Martin Place Steps: speaker venue

An area near front will be reserved for accessibility
(mobility, Auslan viewing)

There is a ramp to the right to move between the levels

← Short route: Martin Place to Macquarie St

Short route: Macquarie St kerb →

Long route: kerb from Martin Place onto
Phillip St

Long route: Philip St/Hunter St corner

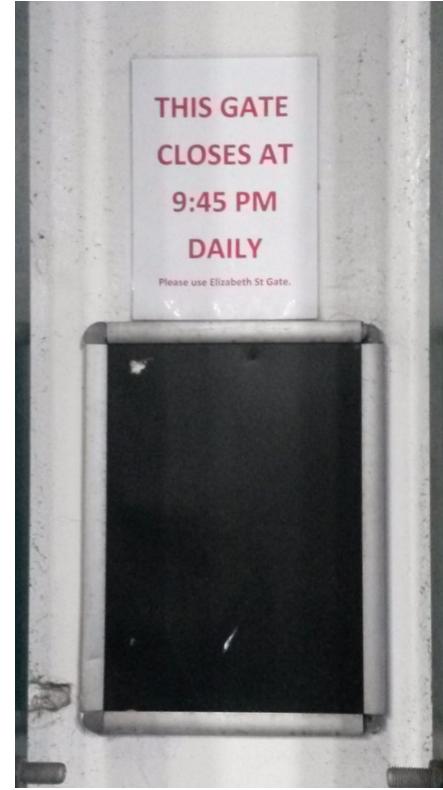

Long route: Hunter St/Macquarie St corner.

Note: Hunter St is moderately uphill

Hyde Park North (Macquarie St entrance)

← Macquarie St (after convergence of short and long routes)

St James Station entrance at Hyde Park North (Macquarie St entrance), open until 9.45pm.

Lift access to St James Station is located at Elizabeth St/Market St.